

Society for American Baseball Research

Formed in 1971, the Society for American Baseball Research (SABR) is a worldwide organization of researchers, historians, statisticians, and baseball enthusiasts. SABR has many committees (Ballparks, Minor Leagues, Negro Leagues, Statistical Analysis, Women in Baseball, Umpires and Rules, Scouts) members can join, annual publications, articles by members, and an annual convention, which was held in Minneapolis in 1988, 2012, and 2024.

In Minnesota, the Halsey Hall Chapter, named after the longtime announcer, writer, and baseball ambassador, is one of the most active local organizations within SABR. The Halsey Hall Chapter has two semi-annual full-day meetings, bi-monthly breakfast get-togethers, a book club, and other activities.

For more about SABR and the Halsey Hall Chapter, check out <http://sabr.org> and <http://www.halseyhall.org>. The latest newsletter, available through the Halsey Hall Chapter web site, has news about chapter members and activities as well as information about upcoming events.

To join, submit this form and payment to SABR, P. O. Box 1715, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53201.

Name: _____

Address: _____ Apt. _____

City, State, Zip Code _____

Email address: _____

Phone Number: (_____) _____

Birthday: _____

Research interests and expertise: _____

Profession/Title: _____

(Send check or money order or call 602-496-1460 to pay by credit card)

Choose Your Membership Option

Annual: $80

30 or under: $40

Student: $25 (must verify student status)

Three-year membership: $215

Note: SABR membership is for one calendar year from the date you join.

For more information, contact Stew Thornley, stew@stewthornley.net